

Build The House March 19th

“God’s mission and vision is always beyond my resources and spiritual maturity. The vision is bigger than any one individual.”
Pastor Jonathan

The Lord now chose seventy-two other disciples and sent them ahead in pairs to all the towns and places he planned to visit. These were his instructions to them: “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields. Luke 10:1-2 NLT

1. What are the needs of the community that you personally see and experience?

One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer..at three in the afternoon. Now a man who was lame from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple courts. Then Peter said, “Silver or gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk.” When all the people saw him walking and praising God, they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate. Acts 3:1-2; 6:9-10 NIV

2. How does “Build The House” set us up for a “Jesus Interaction”?

“After that generation died, another generation grew up who did not acknowledge the Lord or remember the mighty things he had done for Israel.” Judges 2:10 NLT

3. If we are a church that cares about reaching the next generation how does the posture of “whatever it takes” work out in our personal lives?

4. How will this spiritual journey of “Build The House” grow our faith, our heart, our vision, our impact personally, and corporately?
