
The Prayer - Week 5

3/17 - 3/23/24

S.O.A.P. :

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.

10 Your kingdom come.

Your will be done

On earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts,

As we forgive our debtors.

13 And do not lead us into temptation,

But deliver us from the evil one.

For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Matthew 6:9-13, NKJV

1. How can the relational aspect of prayer influence the way you approach prayer in your daily life?
2. We all face various forms of temptation, both externally and internally. In what ways have you experienced these different types of temptations in your own life? How does understanding the source and nature of these temptations affect your ability to resist them?
3. Drawing from the examples of Jesus' temptation in the wilderness, how does the Word of God serve as a powerful weapon against the schemes of the enemy? Can you share a personal experience where relying on Scripture helped you overcome a temptation or trial?
4. There is a connection between prayer and protection, specifically in asking God to deliver us from evil. How does prioritizing prayer for protection align with your understanding of spiritual warfare? How can you strengthen your relationship with Jesus to better equip yourself in facing spiritual battles?
